

Economic issues in the 2020 election and beyond

FALL WEBINAR SERIES

Sep
28

7-8 pm
CDT

Economic Issues in 2020

The webinar will give an overview of the key economic issues facing the United States and how would they be impacted by the election.

Moderator:

Noah Williams

CROWE Director

University of Wisconsin-Madison

Access and more information at
<https://crowe.wisc.edu/fall-2020-economic-issues>

Diane Whitmore Schanzenbach

Director, IPR
Margaret Walker Alexander Professor of
Human Development and Social Policy,
Northwestern University

Schanzenbach studies policies aimed at improving the lives of children in poverty, including education, health, and income support policies. Her recent work has focused on tracing the impact of major public policies such as the Food Stamp Program and early childhood education on children's long-term outcomes. She has testified before both the Senate and House of Representatives on her research. From 2015-17, she served as director of the Hamilton Project at the Brookings Institution.

Lee E. Ohanian

Professor of Economics, Director, Ettinger
Family Program in Macroeconomic Research,
UCLA, Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution,
Stanford University

Ohanian's research focuses on economic crises, economic growth, and the impact of public policy on the economy. He is a frequent columnist for the Wall Street Journal, San Francisco Chronicle, and other media. He is the Associate Director of the Center for the Advanced Study in Economic Efficiency at Arizona State University. He has been an economic adviser to state and national political campaigns and has testified to the U.S. Senate and the California State Legislative Assembly.